

Welcome

Welcome to the Bryn Y Maen site supporting our local RSPCA centre

If you've got the love and capacity in your home to take on a pet, you have come to the right place. If you can spare some time and want to make a difference, you have come to the right place.

Whether a pet-owner or not, if your lifestyle doesn't permit those things and you'd still like to make a difference, becoming a member or making a donation is equally valuable to us.

We only exist because you care.

And remember, we are holding our Dog Show 2011 on Sunday 15th May - be sure to pay us a visit!